

Conference Programme

The conference will be held over two days in one meeting room at Manchester Hall. Each day starts at 09:00 and ends after a key note address at 17:00. Food and refreshment will be served at various intervals.

Monday 15 July 2019

Time	Activity
09:00	Introductions
09:10	Paper 1: Philosophizing Within and Across Traditions: Discussing Bryan Van Norden's Proposal for Multicultural Philosophy
09:55	Paper 2: Integrating Mengzi's ethics with a reading of John McDowell
10:40	Paper 3: Transcendence in learning philosophy
11:25	Refreshment break
11:45	Paper 4: Strategies for Incorporating Indian Philosophy into Traditional Philosophy Courses.
12:30	Paper 5: Exploring Non-Western Philosophical Works through Comparing and Contrasting Their Prominent Translations
13:15	Lunch
14:15	Paper 6: Ethics & the Mahabharata
15:00	Paper 7: Ancient Ethics in Comparative Perspective
15:45	Refreshment break
16:00	Keynote speaker
17:00	End of day

Tuesday 16 July 2019

Time	Activity
09:00	Welcome
09:10	Paper 8: Proper acts, knowledge and categories in Jainism: reshaping traditional distinctions towards a global framework
09:55	Paper 9: The mind-body problem
10:40	Paper 10: Embody Non-Western Philosophy: A Pedagogical Transformation
11:25	Refreshment break
11:45	Paper 11: Towards an inclusive approach to the teaching of epistemology: "So, what do Indian philosophers have to say about perception?"
12:30	Paper 12: Philosophy and Pedagogy: Teaching Indian Philosophy Through Dialogues in the Upanishads
13:15	Lunch
14:15	Paper 13: Dynamic Classrooms: Bridging the Epistemological and Ontological – A Student and Professor Reflect on Philosophy of Race
15:00	Paper 14: Indigenous American Epistemologies: The Perpetuation of Pedagogical Oppression
15:45	Refreshment break
16:00	Keynote speaker
17:00	End of conference

