

Conference Programme

The conference will be held over two days in one meeting room at Manchester Hall. Each day starts at 09:00 and ends after a keynote address at 17:00. Food and refreshment will be served at various intervals.

Monday 15 July 2019

Time	Activity
09:00	Introductions
09:10	Philosophizing Within and Across Traditions: Discussing Bryan Van Norden's Proposal for Multicultural Philosophy (Mikel Burley, Leeds)
09:55	Integrating Mengzi's ethics into the classroom (Gina Lebkuecher, Loyola)
10:40	Transcendence in learning philosophy (Anton Rennesland, Manila)
11:25	Refreshment break
11:45	Strategies for Incorporating Indian Philosophy into Traditional Philosophy Courses (Joel Feldman, Rider)
12:30	Exploring Non-Western Philosophical Works through Comparing and Contrasting Their Prominent Translations (Min Tang, Chapel Hill)
13:15	Lunch
14:15	Ethics & the Mahabharata (Raj Sehgal)
15:00	Ancient Ethics in Comparative Perspective (Clark Donley and Molly Wilder, Georgetown)
15:45	Refreshment break
16:00	Keynote talk: A Zen Interpretation of the Golden Rule in Confucius (Bryan W. Van Norden, Singapore, Vassar)
17:00	End of day

Tuesday 16 July 2019

Time	Activity
09:00	Welcome
09:10	Proper acts, knowledge and categories in Jainism: reshaping traditional distinctions towards a global framework (Marie-Hélène Gorisse, Ghent)
09:55	The mind-body problem (Keekok Lee, Manchester)
10:40	Embody Non-Western Philosophy: A Pedagogical Transformation (Bin Song, Washington)
11:25	Refreshment break
11:45	Towards an inclusive approach to the teaching of epistemology: "So, what do Indian philosophers have to say about perception?" (Eleni Lorandou, Lancaster)
12:30	Philosophy and Pedagogy: Teaching Indian Philosophy Through Dialogues in the Upanishads (Brian Black, Lancaster)
13:15	Lunch
14:15	Dynamic Classrooms: Bridging the Epistemological and Ontological – A Student and Professor Reflect on Philosophy of Race (Chris Rawls and Adrienne Wooster, Roger Williams University)
15:00	Indigenous American Epistemologies: The Perpetuation of Pedagogical Oppression (William Parkhurst and Javier Cardoza-Kon, South Florida)
15:45	Refreshment break
16:00	Keynote talk: (Chakravarthi Ram-Prasad, Lancaster)
17:00	End of conference

